1st United Door Technologies Announces New Distribution Center Opening

Garage door manufacturer expands its presence in Southern California with new distribution center in Fullerton, CA.

Tempe, AZ – April 20, 2008 - 1st United Door Technologies (FUDT) will open a new distribution center (DC), in Fullerton, CA on May 4th. This is the third regional distribution center to be opened in California. The new facility will distribute residential and commercial sectional garage doors, operators and hardware, greatly improving product availability and expediting delivery times.

Located 22 miles southeast of metropolitan Los Angeles, in the center of North Orange County, Fullerton is a full-service city renowned for its unique mix of residential, commercial and industrial, educational, and cultural environments which provide an outstanding quality of life for both residents and businesses alike. The company is pleased to invest in the Fullerton community with this new facility.

Located at 1225 Burton Street, Fullerton, CA 92831, the facility will greatly improve logistics and service for our customers. An open house will be held on May 1st, from 10:00am to 3pm, to introduce garage door dealers to FUDT products, services and support programs. It will also be an opportunity to meet FUDT staff and representatives from various garage door industry vendors.

First United Door Technologies, founded in 2000, owns and operates its corporate office and manufacturing facility in Tempe, Arizona and operates other Southern California distribution centers in Rancho Cucamonga and Chatsworth.
